

Home Completed For Good Friday Appeal 2010

Villawood Properties and Henley are delighted to announce construction for the Good Friday Appeal Charity House is complete and the home is now 'open for inspection'.

The contemporary, double-storey Henley home found within the award-winning 'Alamanda' estate, has received its finishing touches including alfresco, landscaping, flooring, six star energy rating and much much more!

The home can be viewed throughout March at the following open for inspection times:

Saturday: 1.30 - 3.00 pm

Sunday: 1.30 - 3.00 pm

Wednesday: 5.00 - 6.00 pm

In the lead up to the auction, Alamanda recently welcomed The Royal Children's Hospital patient, eight-year-old Charlotte and City of Wyndham Mayor Cr Heather Marcus to view the home under construction.

Assisting the hospital in its bid to support children just like Charlotte, all funds from the sale of the architecturally inspired Henley home at Alamanda will go directly to The Royal Children's Hospital, Melbourne.

The auction will be held at 1pm on Good Friday, 2 April, on site at 91 Lincoln Heath Boulevard, Alamanda Point Cook.

For further information on the home for auction or to arrange an inspection please contact Joel Williams of Oliver Hume Real Estate Group on 03 9684 8113. www.alamandapointcook.com.au

